ABSTRACT

This book is a coordinated manual of ideas for the U.S. history teacher in grades 6-12. It is a cooperative effort on the part of the many quoted contributors, each doing his or her bit to improve history teaching in the United States. Chapters include: (1) "Desirable Aims in Teaching United States History"; (2) "Classroom-Centered Activities"; (3) "Student-Centered Activities"; (4) "Variety in Class Organization and General Teaching Methods"; (5) "Teaching about Specific Events or Periods in History"; (6) "Teaching about Special Kinds of Historical Problems"; (7) "Practical Teaching of American Principles"; and (8) Concluding Note.
